

Reflections

God's promises are like a bag full of golden coins that God pours out at the feet of His adopted children and says: "Take what you will!"

William Spurstowe

Oh! but when a man can reflect upon the promises, as having an interest in them, that delight which flows from faith, and is accompanied with such a certainty, surely that is a more pure delight than the other, and doth more ravish the heart; they have more intimate and spiritual joy than others have.

Confession of Sin

Most holy and merciful Father, we acknowledge and confess to you our sinful nature—prone to evil and slow to do good—and all our shortcomings and offenses against you. You alone know how often we have sinned in wandering from your ways, in wasting your gifts, in forgetting your love. O Lord, have mercy on us. We are ashamed and sorry for all our rebellious deeds. Teach us to hate our sin. Cleanse us from our secret sins and forgive us for the sake of your Son. O most holy and loving Father, send your purifying grace into our hearts, that from now on we may live in your light and walk in your ways, according to the word of Jesus Christ our Lord.
